

NOTICE TO RECIPIENT

We have reviewed the Intelligence Publications Index (IPI) ^{in the light of the available} and other means ^{for} providing information on ^{the availability} ^{of} intelligence publications. This review shows that there ^{is} ^{little justification for continuing the IPI.} ^(are) more effective and efficient alternatives for providing this ^(information than the IPI). On this basis, we have decided to terminate ^(the) production ^(of the IPI) with this issue.

The Central Reference Service is prepared to discuss alternative processing techniques for meeting your specific requirements for listings of intelligence publications.
